John J. Horton is Deputy Librarian of the University of Bradford and currently Chairman of its Academic Board of Studies in Social Sciences. He has maintained a longstanding interest in the discipline of area studies and its associated bibliographical problems, with special reference to European Studies. In particular he has published in the field of Icelandic and of Yugoslav studies, including the two relevant volumes in the World Bibliographical Series.

Robert A. Myers is Associate Professor of Anthropology in the Division of Social Sciences and Director of Study Abroad Programs at Alfred University, Alfred, New York. He has studied post-colonial island nations of the Caribbean and has spent two years in Nigeria on a Fulbright Lectureship. His interests include international public health, historical anthropology and developing societies. In addition to Amerindians of the Lesser Antilles: a bibliography (1981), A Resource Guide to Dominica, 1493-1986 (1987) and numerous articles, he has compiled the World Bibliographical Series volumes on Dominica (1987), Nigeria (1989) and Ghana (1991).

Ian Wallace is Professor of German at the University of Bath. A graduate of Oxford in French and German, he also studied in Tübingen, Heidelberg and Lausanne before taking teaching posts at universities in the USA, Scotland and England. He specializes in contemporary German affairs, especially literature and culture, on which he has published numerous articles and books. In 1979 he founded the journal GDR Monitor, which he continues to edit under its new title German Monitor.

Hans H. Wellisch is Professor emeritus at the College of Library and Information Services, University of Maryland. He was President of the American Society of Indexers and was a member of the International Federation for Documentation. He is the author of numerous articles and several books on indexing and abstracting, and has published The Conversion of Scripts and Indexing and Abstracting: an International Bibliography. He also contributes frequently to Journal of the American Society for Information Science, The Indexer and other professional journals.

Ralph Lee Woodward, Jr. is Director of Graduate Studies at Tulane University, New Orleans, where he has been Professor of History since 1970. He is the author of Central America, a Nation Divided, 2nd ed. (1985), as well as several monographs and more than sixty scholarly articles on modern Latin America. He has also compiled volumes in the World Bibliographical Series on Belize (1980), Nicaragua (1983), and El Salvador (1988). Dr. Woodward edited the Central American section of the Research Guide to Central America and the Caribbean (1985) and is currently editor of the Central American history section of the Handbook of Latin American Studies.

THE WORLD BIBLIOGRAPHICAL SERIES

This series, which is principally designed for the English speaker, will eventually cover every country (and many of the world's principal regions), each in a separate volume comprising annotated entries on works dealing with its history, geography, economy and politics; and with its people, their culture, customs, religion and social organization. Attention will also be paid to current living conditions – housing, education, newspapers, clothing, etc.– that are all too often ignored in standard bibliographies; and to those particular aspects relevant to individual countries. Each volume seeks to achieve, by use of careful selectivity and critical assessment of the literature, an expression of the country and an appreciation of its nature and national aspirations, to guide the reader towards an understanding of its importance. The keynote of the series is to provide, in a uniform format, an interpretation of each country that will express its culture, its place in the world, and the qualities and background that make it unique. The views expressed in individual volumes, however, are not necessarily those of the publisher.

MAPS OF SIERRA LEONE 236

A bibliography of Sierra Leone (q.v.), which covered the period up to 1925, and therefore it includes no works from before this date.

626 Current bibliography of Sierra Leone.
Geoffrey J. Williams. Sierra Leone Geographical Journal, no. 10 (1966), p. 98–9; no. 11 (1967), p. 73–6; no. 12 (1968), p. 74–8; no. 13 (1969), p. 58–61; no. 14 (1970), p. 50–5; no. 15 (1971), p. 81–94.

These listings update the author's Bibliography of Sierra Leone 1925–1967 (q.v.). They include books and journal articles, including those in the Sierra Leone Geographical Journal itself. It also lists short items from newspapers and magazines, and is not limited to geographical subjects. The list in issue no. 15 (1971) is the longest as it includes all material noted since the previous year, rather than just material published during the previous year. This list is divided into subjects.

627 A bibliography of non-periodical literature on Sierra Leone, 1925–1966 (excluding Sierra Leone Government publications).
Compiled and edited by Hans M. Zell. Freetown: University College of Sierra Leone, Fourah Bay College Bookshop, 1966. 44p.

The 239 entries are arranged under broad subject categories, and by author within each subject. There is an author index. It includes theses, but no vernacular literature.

Area handbook for Sierra Leone.
See item no. 9.

Eighteenth and nineteenth century printed maps of Sierra Leone: a preliminary listing.
See item no. 38.

Historical dictionary of Sierra Leone.
See item no. 108.

Indexes

There follow three separate indexes: authors (personal and corporate); titles; and subjects. Title entries are italicized and refer either to the main titles, or to other works cited in the annotations. The numbers refer to bibliographical entries, not to pages.
